

THE INSURANCE COVER

The Paddle Project has specialist Stand Up Paddleboard hire Public Liability Insurance up to £3,000,000. This means that if customers have an accident on our boards and/or damage someone else's equipment or property, our insurance can pay up to £3,000,000 in costs whilst the boards are under hire. Please note there is an excess payable on this policy (see 'excess amounts' below) which would be charged to you in the event of a claim.

Please note that this is Third Party Liability Cover and DOES NOT cover Personal Injury.

If you wish to cover yourself further and insure yourself personally for Personal Public Liability or for Personal Injury, we would recommend this company who specialise in Insurance for SUP Hire. SUPINSURE.COM

Our equipment is also insured for loss, damage and theft. Under UK Law, the equipment can only be insured once and we have done this already. Should the equipment be lost, damaged or stolen whilst under hire, any claims would be made under The Paddle Project's insurance policy and the relevant excess charged to the customer (see 'excess amounts' section below). If the loss, damage or theft is for an item or items whose total retail cost is less than the excess amount due then that lower amount will be charged and payable by the hirer (see costs listed below).

If you require full details of our insurance policy, we are happy to supply them if you contact us.

Please note that conditions apply to the policy including, but not limited to, the equipment not being left unattended at any time and it being used in a responsible way for its intended use.
